

The requirement of Disclosure of Beneficial Owner

The Law:

On 1 July 2020 the Finance Act introduced changes to the Companies Act, the Anti-Money Laundering Act, the Income Tax Act and the Trustees Incorporations Act by establishing beneficial ownership rules.

On 14th May 2021, the Ministry of Industry and Trade through Government Notice no. 391 of 2021 published the Companies (Beneficial Ownership) Regulations, 2021.

The new regulations are in place to implement the beneficial ownership requirement introduced by the Companies Act through amendment made by the Finance Act, 2020.

Who is a beneficial owner:

A beneficial owner is defined under the Companies Act as a natural person (i) who directly or indirectly ultimately owns or exercises substantial control over an entity or an arrangement, or (ii) who has a substantial economic interest in or receives substantial economic benefit from an entity or an arrangement directly or indirectly whether acting alone or together with other persons, or (iii) on whose behalf an arrangement is conducted, or (iv) who exercises significant control or influence over a person or arrangement through a formal or informal agreement.

The Regulations put a requirement for companies to identify and register all the beneficial owners of the Companies. The Regulations has four parts i.e. Preliminary provisions which include the Interpretation, Information of Beneficial Owners, Register of Beneficial Owners and Miscellaneous Provisions.

The term beneficial owner has been defined to mean a natural person who directly or indirectly ultimately owns or exercise substantial control over an entity or an arrangement; who has a substantial economic benefit from an entity or an arrangement directly or indirectly whether acting alone or together with other persons; on whose behalf an arrangement is conducted or who exercises significant control or influence over a person or
